Our Lady and St Patrick's Catholic Primary School MARYPORT	Wednesday 12 February 2020

A course for teachers, teaching assistants and lay chaplains in primary schools. Explore one of the parables of Jesus and how to engage children creatively with its message and return to school with a toolkit of activities to use with your specific year group.

On this course, you will:

- Explore the parable through Lectio Divina and Art
- Work in age groups to develop meaningful activities to enable children to 'live out' the message
- Discuss ways in which the work and message might be shared beyond the classroom.

Trainer: Margaret Wright

Margaret Wright is a retired Catholic headteacher who has worked for a number of years for Catholic Teaching Alliance (North) delivering CPD for primary schools in the areas of Curriculum RE and Prayer and Liturgy. She is able to deliver CPD to clusters across the Diocese of Lancaster.
